A friendly reminder:

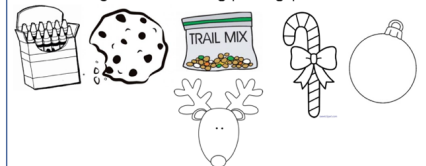

This Friday is our first-grade holiday party! Each first-grade class has been collecting donations over the last week or so to ensure that our party is a success! Thank you to those who have already donated and please continue to send in those donations as the week goes on!

I also want to remind you about the party punch card - each student will be wearing a punch card. Students will be allowed to enter a station one time, and once they leave that station, they will receive a punch on that stations picture to show that they have already been to that station. There is also a spot for behavior punches, and if students get 3 behavior punches, they will be asked to return to their teacher for the remaining time of the party. Please review expectation and behavior with students to ensure this party is a success!

Thank you for your continued support in our classroom!
